A Bright Future

The lesson from Jeremiah brings good news for God's people:

SMALL ELK NOW HEALTHY

Great! But if you rearrange the letters it gets even better than that:

Today's lessons:

Jeremiah 31:31-34 God promises his people to replace the Old

Covenant of Mount Sinai with a New Covenant, and the Law of the Ten Commandments written in stone with a Law written on their heart.

Psalm 51:1-12 A psalm of repentance that acknowledges that our sins are not just accidental, but that sinfulness is at the heart of our very being.

Hebrews 5:5-10 In the Letter to the Hebrews Jesus is described as a priest, but a very special kind of priest who brings himself as a sacrifice.

John 12:20-33 Jesus explains to his disciples and some curious newcomers that his time has come now, but that this means he has to die now in order to complete his assignment.

I HAD TO LEARN THE TEN COMMANDMENTS BY HEART WHEN I WAS A KID.

Psalm 51

In the Bible this Psalm is introduced as the one that King David wrote when the prophet Nathan rebuked him because David had committed adultery with Bathsheba.

But it fits the breaking of any other commandment just as well...
